For this section partly cloudy and cooler tonight. Thursday fair, with moderate temperature; light to fresh north to northeast winds.

Joint Committee Meeting.

There was a meeting of the city and county democratic committees at the Hotel Fleischmann last night when the arrangements for the primary election next Tuesday were completed.

Messrs. James R. Caton and John H. Trimyer are the only candidates for the House of Delegates who have complied with the requirements of the committee, and their names were ordered to be printed on the tickets. But two candidates for the city democratic committee for each ward filed their names and they were declared elected by the old committee.

The new committee is now as follows: First ward, O. F. Phillips and E. F. Thompson; Second ward, R. T. Cook and George E. Price; Third ward, S. G. Brent and George L. Simpson, and Fourth ward, Charles Bendheim and O. F. Carter.

The committee decided that the two regular democratic judges and the registrar in each precinct would be designated to act as judges in the primary. One of the judges in each precinct will have to act as clerk.

A resolution was passed providing that if any judge or registrar should fail to qualify the committeemen from that precinct will fill the vacancy.

It was also announced that each candidate on the ticket would be entitled to have one friend in each voting place from the time that the polls are opened until after the ballots are counted.

The secretary was instructed to have the official ballots printed, and it was stated that only such ballots would be recognized.

Meeting Tonight.

The friends of Mr. Joseph E. Willard, one of the candidates for Governor of the State, are anticipating a large attendance at the meeting at the Opera House tonight when that gentleman will address the people of this city. The gallery will be reserved for ladies, and will be rendered pleasant by electric fans, and a brass band has been engaged to furnish music.

While in this city Mr. Willard will be the guest of former Mayor George L. Simpson, who will introduce him at the meeting tonight. Captain Willard arrived here at 2:50 o'clock tonight and will leave at 11:20 tonight for Harrisonburg, where the State Firemen's Association will be in session. On Friday he will speak at Sterling in the morning, Leesburg in the afternoon, and Round Hill at night. He will then drive over to Fauquier and will speak at five different points in that county on Saturday. Captain Willard will close his campaign with a speech in Richmond on Monday night.

The managers of the meeting say they know nothing of the report telegraphed from Richmond to the Gazette yesterday that Governor Montague would try to reach this city from Lexington tonight in time to speak at the Willard meeting. He is not expected by the managers, who say that so far as arranged Mr. Simpson and Capt. Willard will be the only two speakers.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Temp Wilson, colored, arrested by Officer Allen charged with assaulting Julia Cheeks, was fined $5.

Mary Lawson, colored, arrested by the same officer charged with stealing money from Alice Kitts, was fined $10.

Jack Beach, colored, arrested by Officer Lyles charged with stealing money from Alice Kitts, was dismissed.

Harrie Davis, colored, charged with assaulting and beating Lewis Baltimore, was fined $25.

Harrie Baker and Lou Taylor, both colored, charged with disorderly conduct, were dismissed.

Charles Shankford and Mary Brown, both colored, arrested by Officer Nicholson charged with disorderly conduct, were dismissed.

At Basic City.

All twelve companies comprising the Seventieth Virginia Regiment are safe in camp in Basic City. The camp ground is a fine site, with ample room for all the tents in advantageous positions. Good water is easily had in abundance, and all hands were comfortably tented before the shades of night arrived, and retired after the day's fatigue, well-fed and full of expectations for a week of valuable military training and pleasure. Splendid scenery surrounds the camp and the Brandon Hotel in full sight, with its large company of fair guests, gives promise of much gaiety for the soldier boys outside of duty hours. The camp will be known as "Camp Jackson," and for a week will be the scene of drills, parades and scouting work. The men will wear khaki uniforms.

Approach to Highway Bridge.

It is said that the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company has secured the right of way for an approach to the new highway bridge in a direct line from Arlington Junction. A concrete arch will be built over Roche's run and the other portions of the roadway will be filled in with earth, thus avoiding the trestle, which is now used just north of the junction. The arch and embankments will be constructed for double tracks.

The new double-track bridge over Four-mile run, a short distance north of the power house, was used today.

The complimentary excursion to River View today tendered by Capt. E. S. Randall to the union Sunday schools of this city was well attended.

To Close Business.

Mr. R. H. Appich, proprietor of one of the oldest manufacturing establishments in this city, is about to cease business, his store on King street, near St. Asaph's, having been closed. Appich's confectionery has been an Alexandria institution since the early thirties, when David Appich conducted the confectionery business in a frame house which stood on the south side of King street, between Royal and Pitt. He later located in the building now occupied by Mr. H. Bloch, and subsequently in the house on the northeast corner of King and St. Asaph streets, on the site of which the new Citizens' Bank has been erected. Several years ago he purchased the old fire insurance building two doors east on King street. This structure is north of the building line and Mr. Appich placed an addition on the front and united the two structures, and the business was conducted in that place until yesterday. The passing away of this establishment reproduces reminiscences of by-gone days. Many years ago among the principal confectioneries and bakeries of the city were those conducted by David Appich, Gottlieb Appich, Christian Schaefer, Michael German and Henry Brengle. The three first named have long since paid the debt of nature. Mr. German, now at an advanced age, still moves among us, although he relinquished business a long time ago, but Mr. Brengle is still catering to his customers, and contemplates removing from his present quarters on Cameron street to a more central locality on Columbus street, a few doors from King. He came to Alexandria April 10, 1844.

Departure of the Firemen.

The members of the Relief Hook and Ladder, Columbia and Reliance fire companies who had made arrangements to visit Harrisonburg during the meeting of the State Firemen's Association in that place left this morning at 7:55 o'clock via the Southern Railway. The members of the three organizations were astir at an early hour, and some time before the hour appointed for leaving they were at their respective engine houses. Many persons had gathered at the depot to see the Alexandrians off, and they were accompanied by numbers during their march to the station. The members of the Reliance company were accompanied by the Naval Gun Factory Band of Washington and the Columbia by the Brass Band, composed of twenty pieces. The Alexandrians will return Friday night.

Called meetings of the Relief, Columbia and Reliance companies were held last night to complete the arrangements for the trip today. The various committees made final reports showing that every possible detail had been attended to.

Shot During Altercation.

John Logan, colored, who was released from jail yesterday, after serving a sentence for an assault upon Hatie Conway, became engaged in an altercation during the afternoon with a negro named Eugene Parker, the Conway woman being the subject of the dispute. During the difficulty Parker procured a shotgun and discharged it at his rival. The latter escaped serious injury, only a few of the shots striking him on one of his arms. Parker was later arrested by Officers Smith and Patterson. He was arraigned in the Police Court this morning, when his case was continued in the absence of certain witnesses.

The Braddock House.

Today the Mayor, the City Engineer, the Health Officer, the Acting Chief of the Fire Department and the Chief of Police inspected the old Braddock House building to ascertain its conditions generally, it having been reported that it was unsafe unsanitary, &c. A report will be made to the Mayor by each of the officers who inspected the building.

Shooting Birds.

Game laws or no game laws, gunners every evening now repair to the southern section of the city and shoot birds of every description they see. During the past week a regular fusillade has been kept up every evening and no policeman has made his appearance on the scene.

Several members of the Friendship Fire Association today accompanied the Alexandria firemen on their trip to Harrisonburg.

It is reported that two locomotives were injured in a collision on the Washington and Ohio branch of the Southern Railway last night.

Mr. J. D. Knight has been awarded the contract for making the alterations and improvements at the station house and police court room and will at once commence the work there.

Walter Douglas, while at work laying gas mains on Prince street, near Fairfax, yesterday evening, was taken suddenly ill in the trench and had to be taken to his home on south Fairfax street, where he soon recovered.

Mr. W. H. Underwood, while at work at the residence of Mr. Chas. King, on south St. Asaph street, this afternoon, accidentally opened a gas pipe and was soon overcome. His condition was discovered and he was carried from the house. A resident of the neighborhood administered a restorative, when he quickly revived.

John W. Bela has asked the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia to declare his marriage, with Harriet W. Groff, to be null and void. It is asserted that when the marriage occurred the defendant was the lawful wife of another man. The parties were married in this city March 12, 1903.

Starved to Death.

On a rag-covered cot and her two babies huddled at her breast, the dead body of Mrs. Oscar Horn was found yesterday by Frank Shetzie, a Jersey Central train conductor, at the small place known as Tannery. That the woman died of starvation there was every evidence. The babies and three other children furnished living proof. The twins were so emaciated and wasted, that their tiny frames could scarcely be handled without breaking. The other children, ranging in age from 6 to 10, stood at the bedside with sheets as clothes to cover their tiny bodies. Not a crust of bread was found in the house, not even a drop of milk to nourish the starving babies. A 13-year-old boy came in while Mr. Shetzie was investigating. From him it was learned that he has been the wage-earner for the family for almost a year, and that for two months past the little money he earned his mother spent buying medicine and milk for the twins. The children subsisted as best they could among neighbors and gathering berries in the woods which surround the house.

How Dr. Chapelle Willed His Estate.

The will of Archbishop Chapelle was probated yesterday. The bequests were as follows:

"All of the property, real and personal, I may possess at the time of my death, situated in the State of Louisiana I will and bequeath to the Right Rev. Edward Fitzgerald, bishop of Little Rock, Ark.; Right Rev. Edward P. Allen, bishop of Mobile, and to Very Rev. J. M. Laval, my vicar general.

My property, real and personal, situated in the territory of New Mexico I will and bequeath to the Very Rev. Anthony Fourchigu, administrator of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, during the vacancy of that see.

"All my real and personal property situated in the Department of Lozere, France, I will and bequeath to my niece, Josephine Solignac."

Under the provisions of the will two of Dr. Chapelle's nephews, one of whom resides in New York, are deprived of any interest in the estate.

Potomac Baptist Association.

The Potomac Baptist Association of the Baptist Churches of Northern Virginia opened its fifteenth session at the Ebenezer Baptist Church, near Bloomfield in Loudoun county today to continue until Saturday. The moderator of the association is Judge C. E. Nicol, of Manassas. The association embraces a large membership, and is composed of the churches of Loudoun, Fauquier, Alexandria, Prince William, Fairfax and Stafford counties, and city of Alexandria. The number of ministers attending is about 45, with their delegates and alternates.

The Way the Betting is Going.

Several bets have been made in this city, at even money, that Swanson will carry the State. Also that Willard will beat Swanson. Another bet that Willard will beat Mann at odds of two to one. Several offers of one to two that Mann will win are now open for takers. There is plenty of money at odds of two to one that Martin will win in the State and it is even that he will get more majority in Fredericksburg than Montague will get votes. — Fredericksburg Star.
